Find the right answers according to the text.

It is a mistake to assume that “educational” programs on television are likely to be boring. In fact, as long as these programs are made in a rich and creative manner, there is no doubt that they can and do draw the attention of people, especially young people. Perhaps some of the best examples of successful educational programs are those which deal, for instance, with ancient historical sites, environmental problems, wild life, geography or the strange world at the bottom of the sea.

№32. In the passage, the term “wild life” ...

- a) is used to indicate the behavior of young people.
б) refers to animals, birds and other living beings in nature.
B) signifies the living conditions of primitive people.
r) means a large unused piece of land.

№33. Some people seem to think that ...

- a) only those programs concerned with historical and geographical subjects can be fascinating.
б) television does not give enough importance to the problems of youth.
B) educational programs on television are of little interest.
r) a lot of money is needed to make a good educational program.

№34. In the passage it is emphasized that a good educational program ...

- a) has more influence on people if it is shown on television.
- б) should in the first place be concerned with history and biology.
- в) should involve young people and encourage them to study the natural world.
- г) is one which is made creatively and contains a great deal of interesting material.
